

GREEN JOBS Training Program

Between fall 2013 and summer 2014, the Green Jobs Training Program trained 150 unemployed and underemployed individuals in three green sectors and is on track to place 110 graduates in jobs by October 2014. Previously, during its first phase, the program trained 390 people and placed 240 in jobs for a placement rate of 65%. The Green Jobs Training Program is a collaboration between LaGuardia Community College and Queens Botanical Garden.

People

Audience: unemployed and underemployed New Yorkers.

Strategy

- Thorough screening and recruitment process
- Hands-on, intensive 2.5-week program
- Job readiness workshops
- Job placement assistance
- Employer partnerships

Content

We use Real-Time Labor Market Information to align our curriculum with industry needs.

- Green Cleaning & Housekeeping
- Waste Management
- Building Operations & Maintenance
- OSHA
- Customer Service

Results

- 64% Job Placement Rate
- 95% Retention Rate
- 150 People Trained
- 97 Employed